The Newport Historical Society Museum and Library

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporation in 1854. For almost 150 years the Society has continued to grow both in membership and in the extent and diversity of its collection.

Society activities include lectures, walking tours, and educational outreach programs and special events. The Seventh Day Baptist Meeting House, built in 1730, now attached to the main building, is a treasure of colonial architecture. The library and manuscript collections contain a wealth of information for researchers.

HOURS: The Society's research facilities are open to the public
Tuesday through Friday 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
Saturday (September 1 to Mid-June) 9:30 A.M. to 12 Noon
(Mid-June to August 31) 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

For information on current exhibits and programs please call (401) 846-0813

The Museum of Newport History at the Brick Market is an entertaining, multidimensional exhibit of over 350 years of Newport history told through objects, images, and paintings, as well as state-of-the-art interactive computers and videos. On display are examples of Newport's finest colonial furniture, samplers, and manuscripts, as well as artifacts representing all walks of life from Newport's colorful past.

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House, 17 Broadway, illustrates the history of Colonial America through the daily life of individual Newporters.
Call the Society for hours.

The Quaker Meeting House, built in 1699, the oldest religious structure in Newport is open for viewing by appointment.
